Our Love Story

Andaz San Diego is a kaleidoscope of local history and culture set amid the Gaslamp Quarter. The Gaslamp Quarter is sixteen square blocks of Victorian era buildings offering more than 100 of the city's finest restaurants, pubs, nightclubs, and retail shops.

Originally opened in 1913 for the World's Fair to celebrate the completion of the Panama Canal, our historic building has been transformed into the benchmark for modern luxury and style in San Diego.

Our boutique hotel with 159 rooms offers 18,000 sq. ft. of imaginative event space including The Rooftop by STK which is the largest, premier rooftop pool, bar and dining in the Gaslamp Quarter.

Their Love Story

"We had our wedding ceremony on the Andaz rooftop in June of 2019. Not only was the venue stunning, the staff were incredible led my Michael/Rocky and the team. Food and drinks were great for our cocktail hour. Engineering team were amazing setting up the venue. Our guests loved staying at the Andaz the rooms were wonderful. Great also to be downtown and walkable to many other places locally in San Diego as we had a lot of out of town guests.

Would highly recommend you consider Andaz for your wedding." -Jock Purtle
