Our Love Story

Grand Hyatt San Francisco's collection of local art was commissioned in celebration of the hotel's historic 2013 renovation. Broad walls were left empty and six carefully-selected local artists were given free reign to create a piece befitting of the Grand Hyatt brand and city of San Francisco.

Grand Hyatt San Francisco announced the unveiling of "Rainbow LOVE" by local artist Laura Kimpton, serving as the highlight of a new public courtyard space Grand Hyatt San Francisco shares with the new Apple flagship store on Union Square. This is the eleventh piece of local art that has been commissioned for Grand Hyatt San Francisco.

"Rainbow LOVE" reflects the philosophy of equality without exception and freedom to love whoever you love, capturing the free spirit of the 60s and celebrating San Francisco's long history of supporting equal rights.

Let us, the experts, celebrate your love story with a perfect wedding celebration here at the Grand Hyatt San Francisco.

Your Wedding Weekend

Set the stage for a spectacular experience when you host your special day in San Francisco at our Grand Hyatt hotel. Ideally situated close to popular Union Square attractions, our elegant San Francisco wedding venues offer everything you need to create memories of a lifetime, including a 7,000-square foot Grand Ballroom and an extraordinary 36th floor venue with spectacular panoramic views of the City and the Bay. Whether you dream of a fairytale wedding or a low-key celebration, our wedding specialists will help you bring your vision to life. Grand Hyatt San Francisco is also experienced in planning LGBTQ wedding ceremonies and receptions.
