Your Experience

Congratulations on your upcoming wedding!

This day is about you, and everything from the décor to the cake should reflect your personal aesthetic. Your Hyatt Centric Beale Street Memphis wedding specialist would love to help you plan your special day and bring it to life.

Let us focus on coordinating all the details — so you can focus on your guests and on starting this new chapter in your life.

A Love Story

On the banks of the Mighty Mississippi, discover indoor and outdoor wedding venues that invoke the heart and soul of Memphis. You'll find sweeping river views and gorgeous sunsets outside, soaring ceilings and plenty of natural light inside, and an effortless, carefree flow between the venues to curate a one of a kind event.

All of our weddings include the 788-square-foot Big River Suite for the wedding couple, with unsurpassed views of the Mississippi River and the Hernando De Soto Bridge (a.k.a. the "M" bridge). The suite's separate living area is also ideal as a private dressing room for your wedding day, with those iconic views forming a picture-perfect backdrop.

Personalized Service

We're here for you. It's that simple.

Your wedding specialist will listen carefully to create a plan that includes your perfect décor, manages the event sequence, and frees you to enjoy your celebration. Your wedding specialist will also liaise between you and our culinary team to craft your seasonally inspired menus. All of our catering is done in-house for seamless service, and we source as many ingredients as possible from local purveyors.

What You'll Love About Us

We're housed in the historic Wm. C. Ellis and Sons Ironworks Shop, built in 1879, with a lovingly reimagined and completely reconditioned interior. The Foundry Ballroom, our main wedding venue, celebrates the building's original architecture with exposed brick and beams and feature panoramic Mississippi River views through tall arched windows.

The ballroom connects to a spacious pre-function area and opens onto a 3,560-square-foot event lawn facing the river—an idyllic setting for cocktails and for photos that showcase some of the finest views in Memphis.

For pre- and post-wedding events, such as a rehearsal dinner or a brunch, Beck & Call, our rooftop bar, comfortably hosts up to 60, and an express elevator quickly transports guests to and from the celebration.

The Memphis River Walk is practically at your feet. Our downtown location at the head of Beale Street places you within walking distance of the entertainment district and a short carriage or trolley ride from the South Main Arts District. Reach out so we can start planning your Bluff City wedding today.
