Our Love Story

Hyatt Regency Hill Country Resort and Spa has rich Texas roots. Nestled on 300 acres, our resort is placed on the Rogers-Wiseman family ranch. Founded in 1851, this working cattle ranch was home to three generations of the Rogers-Wiseman family.

The family's third generation start their love story in 1933. Ed Wiseman was a ranch-hand on the property. Soon after moving to his new home, Ed fell in love with the natural landscape. The land's lush greenery, rolling hillsides, shady oak trees, serene ponds, and wildflower meadows still reside on our resort property today. In 1934, Ed fell in love for a second time with the ranch owner's daughter, Blanche Rogers. With his new family's blessing, the couple were married on our beautiful property the next year.

In 1993, 60 years later, Ed gave us the honor of preserving his beautiful family ranch and sharing his home with other families for years to come. Three generations of weddings, special moments, and family are deeply enriched into our resort's culture. Let us, the experts, celebrate your love story with a perfect wedding celebration here at the Hyatt Regency Hill Country Resort and Spa.

Your Experience

What Couples Love About Us

"Getting married here was the best decision we ever made. Gretchen made everything so easy for us and was a joy to work with. Everyone there was so nice to us and extremely helpful. The food was also TO DIE FOR. My husband is a chef so he is very particular about the food. To say it passed the test was an understatement. If anyone is even considering getting married here, I say do it!" – Aislinn

"We enjoyed two catered events, a wedding rehearsal dinner and a wedding reception dinner. We were served delicious and well prepared food and were served graciously and competently by your wait staff. All our wishes were granted! Great job!" – Renee Cowles

"Hyatt Regency Hill Country Resort and Spa went above and beyond to help plan our wedding day. My father was diagnosed with Intrahepatic Cholangiocarcinoma in January. His prognosis was poor and we did not know if we would need to change our wedding date. Fortunately, we were able to keep the original date and my father was there to walk me down the aisle. He passed away the following week. Gretchen made sure to provide a room for him close to the elevator and accommodate us in any way she could. He was not allowed to have salt so she made sure his meals were prepared accordingly without making him feel out of place.

It was the best day of my dad's life, and Gretchen had a lot to do with his joy and comfort." - Alyson Nooner & Zachary Bohmfalk

"The food was excellent!! Really so good. I even had some guests come up and thank me because it was so much better than most wedding food" – Rudy Villarreal

"It was absolutely perfect! The entire staff was amazing! Everything was above our hopes & expectations! Each & every guest felt the hospitality of the entire staff! Truly a well trained staff that love their jobs & we are so thankful that our once in a lifetime celebration to perfection thanks to your staff! Thank you!" – Debbie Morris
