Our Love Story

Hyatt Rosemont has rich Texas roots. Nestled on 300 acres, our resort is placed on the Rogers-Wiseman family ranch. Founded in 1851, this working cattle ranch was home to three generations of the Rogers-Wiseman family.

The family's third generation start their love story in 1933. Ed Wiseman was a ranch-hand on the property. Soon after moving to his new home, Ed fell in love with the natural landscape. The land's lush greenery, rolling hillsides, shady oak trees, serene ponds, and wildflower meadows still reside on our resort property today. In 1934, Ed fell in love for a second time with the ranch owner's daughter, Blanche Rogers. With his new family's blessing, the couple were married on our beautiful property the next year.

In 1993, 60 years later, Ed gave us the honor of preserving his beautiful family ranch and sharing his home with other families for years to come. Three generations of weddings, special moments, and family are deeply enriched into our resort's culture. Let us, the experts, celebrate your love story with a perfect wedding celebration here at the Hyatt Rosemont.
